michaelgregson@tc-group.com

Michael joined Bulley Davey as a school leaver in 1989, spending time in both our general accounts and insolvency departments at Peterborough.

Having left in 1995 to work in industry, he qualified as a Chartered Certified Accountant in 1996. In 1998 he joined a national practice in their insolvency department and qualified as an Insolvency Practitioner in 2001 before rejoining Bulley Davey in January 2004.

He subsequently became a partner at Bulley Davey in December 2004 and a Director, as part of our incorporation into Bulley Davey Limited from 1st November 2014.

Michael has extensive experience of business restructuring and formal insolvencies, including both personal cases and small to medium-sized corporates.

Michael is primarily based at the TC Bulley Davey office in Peterborough and handles a portfolio of cases that comprise bankruptcies, voluntary arrangements (personal and corporate) administrations and liquidations.

James Arnott
